WESTERN DRESSAGE ASSOCIATION® of AMERICA WORLD SHOW & ANNUAL MEETING

Parker, Colorado – Mark your calendars for October 30, 2014-November 2, 2014! Plan to join the Western Dressage Association® of America in Tulsa, Oklahoma for our Fifth Annual meeting and the Second WDAA World Championship Horse Show which is open to all breeds. The Embassy Suites in Tulsa will be the site of two days of meetings and round table discussions. The World Championship show will be at the world class Built Ford Tough Livestock Arena at Expo Square. WDAA is proud to host this event with the Pinto Horse Association.

The World Show will feature classes at each test level, Introductory through Level 3, and will also offer Western Dressage Freestyle tests and classes for Gaited Horses. Awards include ribbons and custom Western Dressage belt buckles for the high score junior, the high score amateur/non pro and the high score open.

WDAA members are encouraged to travel to Tulsa early for the organization's fifth Annual Meeting which starts on October 30. Thanks to 'Early Bird Specials' on stalling, individuals attending the World Show with horses can join in the festivities! These exhibitors are encouraged to contact the Pinto Horse Association office via email at khall@pinto.org for details.

The WDAA annual meeting offers members an opportunity to learn more about Western Dressage from a wide variety of experts; to network with Western Dressage folks from all over the country; to have first-hand input in guiding the development and direction of this wonderful new discipline which the USEF Recognized National Affiliate for Western Dressage. Don't miss a great meeting and a great time in Tulsa!
