WESTERN DRESSAGE ASSOCIATION® of AMERICA WELCOMES GEORGIA AS NEWEST STATE AFFILIATE

Parker, Colorado – The Western Dressage Association® of America (WDAA) is excited to announce its recognition of another state affiliate, the Western Dressage Association® of Georgia. The new Georgia Affiliate has already offered its first Western Dressage clinic and is looking forward to more upcoming events and happenings! Equestrians in Georgia interested in exploring Western Dressage are encouraged to join them for their next meeting on February 24, 2013. To find out more about the new Western Dressage Association® of Georgia, please visit <http://westerndressageassociation.org/affiliate/affiliate-news/georgia-becomes-next-wdaa-state-affiliate/> or their Facebook Page at <http://www.facebook.com/WesternDressageAssociationGeorgia?fref=ts>.

The WDAA state affiliate program helps bring opportunities for educational events, clinics and shows to interested equestrians within a geographical area. Each state is supported by the WDAA with materials, promotion and a 501(c)3 group exemption; but has the freedom to customize programs and work in partnership with other local equine associations and businesses who share a belief in the mission of the WDAA. Affiliates are organizing and forming in states across the nation. If you are interested in taking part in activities in your area, the WDAA encourages you to contact them at affiliates@westerndressageassociation.org.

About the Western Dressage Association® of America: The Western Dressage Association® of America is a 501(c)3 educational non-profit organization focused on providing a model of horsemanship which optimizes the partnership of horse and rider for their mutual benefit. The mission of the Western Dressage Association® is “to honor the horse, to value the partnership between horse and rider and to celebrate the legacy of the American West” which it focuses on through its offerings of educational opportunities and events to the equestrian community.
