

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

03-07-2013

For further information or images: info@westerndressageassociation.org

Western Dressage Association® Of America Welcomes Florida as Newest State Affiliate

Parker, Colorado – The Western Dressage Association® of America (WDAA) is excited to announce its recognition of yet another state affiliate, the Western Dressage Association® of Florida. Western Dressage enthusiasts from every part of the state have worked together to bring a unique flair and great excitement to the discipline and their new affiliate. Respected trainer, clinician and longtime Western Dressage supporter Lynn Palm and her husband Cyril Pittion-Rossillon even hosted the organizing group's kick-off event! Western Dressage activities from clinics to shows are already popping up all over Florida. To find out more about the new Western Dressage Association® of Florida, please visit their Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Western-Dressage-Association-of-Florida/349604921826448>

The WDAA state affiliate program helps bring opportunities for educational events, clinics and shows to interested equestrians within a geographical area. Each state is supported by the WDAA with materials, promotion and a 501(c)(3) group exemption; but has the freedom to customize programs and work in partnership with other local equine associations and businesses who share a belief in the mission of the WDAA. Affiliates are organizing and forming in states across the nation. If you are interested in taking part in activities in your area, the WDAA encourages you to contact them by visiting their webpage at <http://www.westerndressageassociation.org/wdaa-state-affiliates/>.

About the Western Dressage Association® of America: The Western Dressage Association® of America is a 501(c)(3) educational non-profit organization focused on providing a model of horsemanship which optimizes the partnership of horse and rider for their mutual benefit. The mission of the Western Dressage Association® is “to honor the horse, to value the partnership between horse and rider and to celebrate the legacy of the American West” which it focuses on through its offerings of educational opportunities and events to the equestrian community.